THE TEMPLE IN JERUSALEM was the place where the eternal covenant between God and man is kept and made liturgically present. The Temple was the place where the meaning of the whole cosmos was both revealed and explained, and where the reconciliation of the unseen God and man (who lives in the realm of the visible) is undertaken. The Collect for the dedication of a church makes this explicit: 'O God who invisibly holds together all things, and yet for the salvation of the human race show the signs of your power, by your inhabitation of this temple make visible your power.' The invisible God, and the hidden meaning of the cosmos, is disclosed by the visible sign of the church and the visibility of the worship that takes place within it. The church is to be understood as a sign, a formal indication, something like a sacrament, of the heavenly temple. ✨ from WORSHIP AS REVELATION by Laurence Hemming

THE INTRODUCTORY RITE

HYMN ↪ Christ is made the sure foundation

205

INTROIT ↪ Terribilis

Genesis 28 & Psalm 84

O how dreadful is this place! This is the house of God, and gate of heaven: and men shall call it the palace of God. O how amiable are thy dwellings, O LORD of hosts: my soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the LORD.

COLLECT

O GOD, WHO YEARLY BRINGEST us again unto the day of consecration of this thy holy Temple, who dost likewise continually suffer us to draw near in safety unto thy holy Mysteries; mercifully hear the prayers of us thy servants; and grant that whosoever entereth this house to ask thy blessing may rejoice in the obtaining of all that he desires.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

1 Kings 8.22-30

IN THOSE DAYS: Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven. And he said: 'LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before thee with all their heart; who hast kept with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him; thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day. Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying: "There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me." And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father. But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded? Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day: that thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said: "My name shall be there:" that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make toward this place. And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.'

GRADUAL ↪ Locus iste

This dwelling is God's handiwork: it is a mystery above all price, that cannot be spoken against. O God, in whose presence the quires of angels are standing, hear the prayers of thy servants.

SECOND READING

Revelation 21.2-5

IN THOSE DAYS: I, John, saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying: 'Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.' And he that sat upon the throne said: 'Behold, I make all things new.'

ALLELUIA ↪ Adorabo

Psalm 138

Alleluia, alleluia. I will worship toward thy holy temple: and sing praises unto thy Name. Alleluia.

AT THAT TIME: Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. And, behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich. And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature. And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him: 'Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.' And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying: 'That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.' And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord: 'Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.' And Jesus said unto him: 'This day is salvation come to this house, forso much as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.'

OFFERTORY MOTET

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791) ✨ Psalm 117

Laudate Dominum, omnes gentes ; laudate eum, omnes populi. Quoniam confirmata est super nos misericordia ejus, et veritas Domini manet in aeternum. Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto; Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen. ✨ O praise the LORD, all ye heathen : praise him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more towards us : and the truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

OLORD, WE BESEECH THEE, mercifully hear our prayers: that all we, who in this thy house do as on this day call to memory its dedication unto thee, may perfectly serve thee, both in body and soul.

COMMUNION ✨ Domus meaS^t Matthew 21

OGOD, WHO OF ELECT AND LIVING STONES dost fashion for thy divine Majesty an everlasting habitation: we beseech thee to assist the supplications of us thy people; that, like as thy Church increaseth in outward and visible habitations, so it may grow and prosper in all inward and spiritual advancement.
