THE CHRISTIANITY of the early centuries entered into a twilit world of pervasive spiritual despondency and religious yearning. Pagan society seemed unable to conceive of any spiritual aspiration higher than escape, and could imagine no philosophical virtue more impressive than resignation to the impossibility of escape. Christians, by contrast, understood the Kingdom of God to be this world renewed, the one creation of the one true God, set free at last from bondage to death. Robin Lane Fox is quite correct to note that, among the authors of the second century, 'it is the Christians who are the most confident and assured,' and that the 'magnificent optimism' of Irenaeus of Lyon and the almost innocent cheerfulness of Justin Martyr stand out as distinctively and unmistakably Christian characteristics. Even Christian funerals took the form of triumphal processions and communal celebrations of the overthrow of death. The 'new thing' that the gospel imparted to the world in which it was born and grew was something that pagan philosophy would, in most cases, have found shameful to promote: a deep and imperturbable joy. ✨ from ATHEIST DELUSIONS, by David Bentley Hart

THE INTRODUCTORY RITE

HYMN ↪ Light's abode, celestial Salem

401

INTROIT ↪ Protector noster

Psalm 84

Behold, O God, our defender, and look upon the face of thine Anointed: for one day in thy courts is better than a thousand. O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou LORD of hosts: my soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the LORD.

COLLECT

ALmighty and Everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou dost command.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

2 Kings 5.9-16

IN THOSE DAYS: Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying: 'Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.' But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said: 'Behold, I thought, he will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper. Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? May I not wash in them, and be clean?' So he turned and went away in a rage. And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said: 'My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? How much rather then, when he saith to thee: "Wash, and be clean?"' Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said: 'Behold, now I know that there is no God in all earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing of thy servant.' But he said: 'As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none.' And he urged him to take it; but he refused.

GRADUAL ↪ Bonum est confidere

Psalm 118

It is better to trust in the LORD than to put any trust in man. It is better to trust in the LORD than to put any confidence in princes.

EPISTLE

Galatians 5.16-24

BRETHREN: Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

ALLELUIA ↪ Venite, exsultemus

Psalm 95

Alleluia, alleluia. O come, let us sing unto the LORD: let us be joyful in God our salvation. Alleluia.

GOSPEL

S^t Luke 17.11-19

AT THAT TIME: It came to pass, as Jesus went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off: and they lifted up their voices, and said: 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.' And when he saw them, he said unto them: 'Go shew yourselves unto the priests.' And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, and fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said: 'Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.' And he said unto him: 'Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.'

OFFERTORY MOTET

Benedetto Marcello (1686-1739) ↪ Psalm 36

Thy mercy, JEHOVAH, is in the heavens: thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds. Thy righteousness standeth like as the strong mountains, thy judgements are a great deep. O LORD, thou preservest both man and beast: how great is thy mercy, O LORD most high. With thee is the fountain, the fountain of life; and in thy light shall we see light.
