While neighbouring countries have been generous in receiving the displaced people, resources are limited and many are reduced to dependence on relatives who live in more prosperous countries. Those who do not have any such help need immediate support and it is those people that ICIN intends to reach for. As Christians we continue to pray asking our Benevolent Creator to protect his creation in Iraq both Christian and Muslim, and while we pray for all world leaders that they may be enlightened to take the right decisions in steering our beloved country to safety, we feel we want to make some contribution towards the sufferings of those displaced people who do not have the privilege of somebody to protect them.

It is the suffering of those vulnerable displaced people that the charity Iraqi Christians In Need (ICIN) tries to address by giving financial help through our churches.

Christianity became rooted in Iraq from the first Christian centuries. The Christian community of Iraq has been an important part of the fabric of Iraqi society at all times. They made substantial contributions to the emergence of the Abbasid civilization that flourished on Iraqi soil as well as the building of modern Iraq. They have always been proud of their country in which they lived from ancient times and to which they are attached by bonds of history that go back to the Assyrians and the Babylonians.

The recent attacks on the Christians of Iraq, their churches and their religious leaders and the resulting displacement are heartbreaking. It is estimated that more than half of the Christian population has fled the country and a lot more displaced within the country to safer areas. UNHCR have reported that 44% of asylum seekers reaching Syria since their register started in 2003 are Christians, despite the fact that Christians form only 4% of the Iraqi population.

HYMN ↪ There's a wideness in God's mercy

461

INTROIT ↪ Protector noster

Psalm 84

Behold, O God, our defender, and look upon the face of thine Anointed: for one day in thy courts is better than a thousand. O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou LORD of hosts: my soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the LORD.

COLLECT

ALmighty and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou dost command.

FIRST READING

2 Kings 5.9-16

IN THOSE DAYS: Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying: 'Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.' But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said: 'Behold, I thought, he will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper. Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? May I not wash in them, and be clean?' So he turned and went away in a rage. And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said: 'My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? How much rather then, when he saith to thee: "Wash, and be clean?"' Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said: 'Behold, now I know that there is no God in all earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing of thy servant.' But he said: 'As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none.' And he urged him to take it; but he refused.

GRADUAL ↪ Bonum est confidere

Psalm 118

It is better to trust in the LORD than to put any trust in man. It is better to trust in the LORD than to put any confidence in princes.

EPISTLE

Galatians 5.16-24

BRETHREN: Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

ALLELUIA ↪ Venite, exsultemus

Psalm 95

Alleluia, alleluia. O come, let us sing unto the LORD: let us be joyful in God our salvation. Alleluia.

GOSPEL

S^t Luke 17.11-19

AT THAT TIME: It came to pass, as Jesus went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off: and they lifted up their voices, and said: 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.' And when he saw them, he said unto them: 'Go shew yourselves unto the priests.' And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, and fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said: 'Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.' And he said unto him: 'Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.'

OFFERTORY MOTET

Sing joyfully ↪ William Byrd

Sing joyfully to God our strength; sing loud unto the God of Jacob! Take the song, bring forth the timbrel, the pleasant harp, and the viol. Blow the trumpet in the new moon, even in the time appointed, and at our feast day. For this is a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.

HYMN ↪ And now, O Father

273

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

WE PRAY THEE, O LORD, to look down in mercy on thy people, and on the oblations which they offer unto thee: that being thereby rendered acceptable in thy sight, we may obtain of thee the remission of all our sins, and the effectual fulfilment of all our desires.

COMMUNION ↪ Primum quaerite

S^t Matthew 6

'Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and all things shall be added unto you,' saith the LORD.

COMMUNION MOTET

O taste and see ↪ Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1872-1958

O taste and see how gracious the LORD is: blest is the man that trusteth in him.

POSTCOMMUNION

OLORD, WHO HERE HAST FED US with thy heavenly sacraments: grant, we pray thee, that we may thereby grow and increase toward the attainment of everlasting salvation.

ORGAN VOLUNTARY: Prelude and Fugue in G (BWV 541) - J.S. Bach, 1685-1750
