THE TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY ~ 20 OCTOBER 2013

Welcome to St Mary's, especially if you are visiting us for the first time.
Please join us next door in the Presbytery for drinks after High Mass.

The Order of High Mass with the Ordinary texts is provided in the High Mass booklet. The setting of the Ordinary is the Missa Aeterna Christi munera of Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (1525-1594). The Propers of the Mass are set out overleaf. The Hymns are found in The New English Hymnal.

Prayers before Mass | with an eye toward All Saints' Day (1 Nov)

O God, who has brought us near to an innumerable company of angels, and to the spirits of just men made perfect; grant us during our earthly pilgrimage to abide in their fellowship, and in our heavenly country to become partakers of their joy; through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

William Bright (1824-1901)

Glory to the Father, who has woven garments of glory for the resurrection; worship to the Son, who was clothed in them at his rising; thanksgiving to the Spirit, who keeps them for all the saints; one nature in three, to him be praise.

The Introductory Rite

HYMN 338

At the name of Jesus

INTROIT ↪ In voluntate tua

Esther 13 & Psalm 119

O LORD almighty, ev'rything is in subjection unto thee: and there is no man that is able to resist thy power: for thou hast created ev'ry thing, heaven and earth, and all the wonders which beneath the vault of heaven are contained: thou art LORD and King of all things. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the LORD.

COLLECT

GRANT, WE BESEECH THEE, MERCIFUL LORD, to thy faithful people pardon and peace: that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind.

The Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING

Genesis 32.24-29

IN THOSE DAYS: Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day. And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him. And he said: 'Let me go, for the day breaketh.' And he said: 'I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.' And he said unto him: 'What is thy name?' And he said: 'Jacob.' And he said: 'Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.' And Jacob asked him, and said: 'Tell me, I pray thee, thy name.' And he said: 'Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name?' And he blessed him there.

GRADUAL ↪ Domine refugium

Psalm 90

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling place, from one generation to another. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were framed: from everlasting to everlasting thou art God.

EPISTLE

Ephesians 6.10-20

MY BRETHREN: Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood: but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness, and your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace: above all taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked, and take the helmet of salvation: and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit: and watching thereunto with all perseverance, and supplication for all saints: and for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Gospel: for which I am an ambassador in bonds, that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

ALLELUIA ~ In exitu Israel

Psalm 114

Alleluia, alleluia. When Israel came out of Egypt, and the house of Jacob from among the strange people. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

St John 4.46-54

AT THAT TIME: There was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him: and besought him that he would come down and heal his son: for he was at the point of death. Then said Jesus unto him: 'Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.' The nobleman saith unto him: 'Sir, come down ere my child die.' Jesus saith unto him: 'Go thy way, thy son liveth.' And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying: 'Thy son liveth.' Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him: 'Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.' So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him: 'Thy son liveth;' and himself believed, and his whole house. This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee.

OFFERTORY MOTET

Samuel Wesley (1766-1837) ~ Psalm 114

In exitu Israel de Aegypto: domus Jacob de populo barbaro, facta est Judaea sanctificatio ejus: Israel potestas ejus. Mare vidit, et fugit: Jordanis conversus est retrorsum. ~ When Israel came out of Egypt: and the house of Jacob from among the strange people, Judah was his sanctuary: and Israel his dominion. The sea saw that, and fled: Jordan was driven back.

HYMN 394

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

WE BESEECH THEE, O LORD, that these holy mysteries may in such wise bestow upon us thy heavenly healing, that our hearts may thereby be cleansed from all their iniquities.

COMMUNION ~ In saluteri

Psalm 119

My soul hath longed for thy salvation, and I have a good hope because of thy word: when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me? they persecute me falsely, O be thou my help, O LORD my God.

OFFERTORY MOTET

Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876) ~ Psalm 5 & 4

Lead me, LORD, in thy righteousness; make thy way plain before my face. For it is thou, LORD, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

POSTCOMMUNION

OLORD, who dost vouchsafe to feed us with these holy gifts: grant, we beseech thee; that we may be ever rendered worthy of the same, by walking obediently after thy commandments.

Meditations on the Blessed Virgin Mary during October, the month of the Rosary

The meaning of the whole rosary is summed up in the scene of joy and glory with which it ends, the Coronation of Mary above all the Choirs of Angels and Saints. The great mission which began with the angel's announcement to Mary has passed like a stream of fire and light through the mysteries in turn: God's eternal plan for our salvation has been presented to us in one scene after another, accompanying us along our way, and now it brings us back to God in the splendour of heaven. The glory of Mary, Mother of Jesus and our Mother too, is irradiated in the inaccessible light of the august Trinity and reflected in dazzling splendour in Holy Church, triumphant in heaven, suffering patiently in purgatory in the confident expectation of heaven, and militant on earth.

O Mary, you are praying for us, you are always praying for us. We know it, we feel it. O, what joy and truth, what sublime glory, in this heavenly and human interchange of sentiments, words and actions, which the rosary always brings us: the tempering of our human afflictions, the foretaste of the peace that is not of this world, the hope of eternal life!
