

THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

IN THE OCTAVE OF CORPUS CHRISTI

22 JUNE 2014

Welcome to St Mary's, especially if you are visiting us for the first time.
Please join us next door in the Presbytery courtyard for drinks after High Mass.

- ❖ The Order of High Mass with the Ordinary texts is provided in the High Mass booklet.
- ❖ The Propers (prayers, readings and verses) of the Mass are set out overleaf.
- ❖ The Hymns are found in The New English Hymnal.

PRAYER BEFORE MASS

Almighty and ever-living God, I approach the sacrament of your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. I come sick to the doctor of life, unclean to the fountain of mercy, blind to the radiance of eternal light, and poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. Lord, in your great generosity, heal my sickness, wash away my defilement, enlighten my blindness, enrich my poverty, and clothe my nakedness. May I receive the bread of angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords, with humble reverence, with the purity and faith, the repentance and love, and the determined purpose that will help to bring me to salvation. May I receive the sacrament of the Lord's Body and Blood, and its reality and power. Kind God, may I receive the Body of your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, born from the womb of the Virgin Mary, and so be received into His mystical Body and numbered among his members. Loving Father, as on my earthly pilgrimage I now receive your beloved Son, under the veil of a sacrament, may I one day see Him Face to face in glory, who lives and reigns with You for ever. Amen.

St Thomas Aquinas, 1225-1274

HYMN 484

The Church's one foundation

INTROIT

Psalm 13

O Lord my God, in thy loving-kindness and mercy have I trusted, and my heart is joyful in thy salvation. I will sing unto the Lord for he hath dealt lovingly with me. How long wilt thou forget me, O Lord, for ever? How long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

COLLECT

O God, the strength of all them that put their trust in thee; mercifully accept our prayers; and because, through the weakness of our mortal nature, we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in keeping thy commandments we may please thee, both in will and deed.

FIRST READING

2 Samuel 9.6-13

Now when Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said: 'Mephibosheth.' And he answered: 'Behold thy servant!' And David said unto him: 'Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.' And he bowed himself, and said: 'What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am?' Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him: 'I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house. Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread always at my table.' Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. Then said Ziba unto the king: 'According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do.' 'As for Mephibosheth,' said the king, 'he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.' And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Micha. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth. So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

GRADUAL

Psalm 41

I said: Lord have mercy upon me; heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee. Blessed is he that considereth the destitute and needy: the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trouble.

EPISTLE

1 John 4.7-21

Beloved: Let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only-begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. We love him, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God love his brother also.

ALLELUIA

Psalm 5

O ponder thou my words, O LORD; consider my meditation.

GOSPEL

St Luke 16.19-31

At that time: Jesus spake this parable unto his disciples: 'There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: and there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; and in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said: 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.' But Abraham said: 'Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.' Then he said: 'I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.' Abraham saith unto him: 'They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.' And he said: 'Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.' And he said unto him: 'If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.'
