The truth of God is the most comforting and joyful presence we can imagine; and also the most disorienting and demanding. There's a famous Old Testament story (2 Kings 5) about the great military leader of ancient Israel's fiercest enemy, who comes to the prophet Elisha to be healed of his leprosy; and the prophet tells him simply to wash in the river. He is indignant: surely there must be something more difficult and glamorous and heroic to do? No; it's perfectly simple. Go and wash, go and join all those ordinary humble folk who are sluicing themselves in the river after a long day's work, or beating their laundry against the stones. Go and join the rest of the human race and acknowledge who you are. That's the truest heroism and the hardest. It's a foreshadowing of the New Testament invitation: repent and believe and be baptised. Turn round and look where you've never looked before, trust the one who is calling you and drop under the water of his overflowing compassion. Be with him. Join the new human race, re-created in the Spirit of mutual love and delight and service.

HYMN 30 *O come all ye faithful (omit *vv)*

INTROIT Dum medium silentium

Wisdom 18, Psalm 93

When as all the world was in profoundest quietness, and night was in the midst of her swift course, thine almighty word, O Lord, leaped down from heaven out of thy royal throne. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself with strength.

COLLECT

Almighty God, who hast given us thy only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and as at this time to be born of a pure Virgin: grant that we, being regenerate, and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 62.10-12

Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people. Behold, the Lord hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the Lord: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken.

GRADUAL Speciosus. V. Eructavit

Psalm 45

Thou art fairer than the children of men; full of grace are thy lips. My heart is inditing of a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made unto the King: My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

SECOND READING

Galatians 4.1-7

Brethren: Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father. Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world: But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

ALLELUIA Dominus regnavit

Psalm 93

The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel and girded himself with strength.

GOSPEL

St Matthew 1.18-25

At that time: the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife: And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

SERMON

Fr Patrick Tuft

CREED

Credo III (De Angelis - p. 15)

We kneel in reverence for the Mystery of the Incarnation at the words 'came down from heaven'. The choir sings 'Et incarnates est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine, et homo factus est.' (And was Incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary. And was made man'), and then we stand.

OFFERTORY MOTET

*Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)
v. Christmas Cantata Hodie*

The blessed Son of God only In a crib full poor did lie; With our poor flesh and our poor blood Was clothed that everlasting good. Kyrie eleison. The Lord Christ Jesu, God's son dear, Was a guest and a stranger here; Us for to bring from misery, That we might live eternally. Kyrie eleison. All this did he for us freely, For to declare his great mercy; All Christendom be merry therefore, And give him thanks for evermore. Kyrie eleison.

HYMN 33 *Of the Father's love begotten (omit * vv)*

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Grant, we beseech thee, Almighty God: that these gifts which we offer in the sight of thy divine majesty, may obtain for us grace to serve thee in this life will all godliness, and bring us in the end to everlasting felicity.

Instead of the Eucharistic Acclamation: Yea Lord we greet thee - v.6 of Hymn 30

COMMUNION Tolle Puerum

St Matthew 2

Take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

COMMUNION MOTET

Away in a manger, arr. David Willcocks, b.1919

POSTCOMMUNION

Grant, O Lord, that by the operation of these thy mysteries we may be cleansed from all our sins and obtain that which we have asked according to they will.
