The special note of the paschal feast is this: the holy Church rejoices in the forgiveness of sins. It rejoices in the forgiveness not only of those who are then reborn in holy baptism but also of those who are already numbered among God's adopted children. Initially, men are made new by the rebirth of baptism. Yet there still is required a daily renewal to repair the shortcomings of our mortal nature, and whatever degree of progress has been made there is no one who should not be more advanced. All must therefore strive to ensure that on the day of redemption no one may be found in the sins of his former life.

St Leo the Great, c400-461

The Ordinary is sung to Missa Christus resurgens by Gregorio Allegri, 1582-1652

HYMN 106

Come, ye faithful, raise the strain

INTROIT Cantate Domino

Psalm 98

O sing unto the Lord a new song, alleluia: for the Lord hath done marvellous things, alleluia: in the sight of the nations hath he shewed his righteous judgements, alleluia. With his own right hand and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himself the victory.

COLLECT

Almighty God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men: grant unto thy people that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found.

FIRST READING

Job 1. 21 – 27

Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me. Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh? Oh that my words were now written! Oh that they were printed in a book! That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever! For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.

ALLELUIA I Dextera Dei

Psalm 118

The right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass: the right hand of the Lord hath exalted me.

EPISTLE

St James 1. 17 - 21

Dearly beloved: Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Of his own will begat he us with the Word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath. For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted Word, which is able to save your souls.

ALLELUIA II Christus resurgens

Romans 6. 9

Christ being raised from the dead now dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over him.

GOSPEL

St John 16. 5-15

At that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: 'Now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me: "Whither goest thou?" But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. Nevertheless I tell you the truth; it is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment. Of sin, because they believe not on me: of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more: of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit, when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth. For he shall not speak of himself: but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak, and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. All things that the Father hath are mine. Therefore said I: that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.'

SERMON

The Vicar

OFFERTORY MOTET Christus resurgens

Gregorio Allegri, 1582-1652

Christus resurgens ex mortuis, jam non moritur, mors illi ultra non dominabitur. Quod enim mortuus est peccato, mortuus est semel, quod autem vivit Deo, Alleluia. Mortuus est enim propter delicta nostra: et resurrexit propter justificationem nostram, Quod autem vivit Deo, Alleluia.

Christ, rising again from the dead, dieth now no more. Death shall no more have dominion over him. For in that he died to sin, he died once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Alleluia. He died for our sins and rose again for our justification, who liveth unto God. Alleluia.

HYMN 107

Good Christian men, rejoice and sing!

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

O God, who by the wondrous operation of this sacrifice hast made us partakers of thy glorious Godhead: grant, we beseech thee, that we which are taught the knowledge of thy truth, may in all our conversation walk worthily of the same.

COMMUNION Dum venerit Paraclitus

St John 16

When the Comforter, even he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION

Assist us mercifully, O Lord our God: that we, which have in faithfulness received this holy Sacrament, may thereby be cleansed from all our iniquities, and delivered from all dangers that beset us.

VOLUNTARY Allegro maestoso from Sonata No 1 in G

Edward Elgar, 1857-1934
