THE TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY ✧ 13 OCTOBER 2013

Welcome to St Mary's, especially if you are visiting us for the first time.
Please join us next door in the Presbytery for drinks after High Mass.

The Order of High Mass with the Ordinary texts is provided in the High Mass booklet. The setting of the Ordinary is the Missa Vinum bonum of Orlande de Lassus (1532-1594). The Propers of the Mass are set out overleaf. The Hymns are found in The New English Hymnal.

Meditations before Mass by St Teresa of Avila (feast on Tue 15 Oct)

Let nothing disturb thee,
Nothing affright thee;
All things are passing;
God never changeth;
Patient endurance
Attaineth to all things;
Who God possesseth
In nothing is wanting;
Alone God sufficeth.
trans. H.W. Longfellow

Extracts from her MAXIMS for Carmelite nuns:

Never exaggerate, but express your feelings with moderation. Never affirm anything unless you are sure it is true. Always think of yourself as everyone's servant; look for Christ Our Lord in everyone and you will then have respect and reverence for them all. Reflect upon the providence and wisdom of God in all created things and praise him in them all. Accustom yourself continually to make many acts of charity, for they enkindle and melt the soul. Be gentle to all and stern with yourself.

The Introductory Rite

HYMN 461

There's a wideness in God's mercy

INTROIT ↪ Omnia quae fecisti

Song of the Three Children 8 & Psalm 119

Everything that thou hast brought upon us, O Lord GOD, thou hast done in righteousness and judgement, for we have trespassed against thee, and have not obeyed thy commandments: but give glory and honour to thy Name, and deal with us according to the multitude of thy tender mercies. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord.

COLLECT

O ALMIGHTY AND MOST MERCIFUL GOD, of thy bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech thee, from all things that may hurt us: that we, being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things that thou wouldest have done.

The Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING

Proverbs 9.1-6

HEAR, O MY SON: Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars. She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table. She hath sent forth her maidens; she crieth upon the highest places of the city: 'Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither.' As for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him: 'Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled. Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.'

GRADUAL ↪ Oculi omnium

Psalm 145

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O LORD: and thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

EPISTLE

Ephesians 5.15-21

BRETHREN: See then that ye walk circumspectly: not as fools, but as wise: redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess: but be filled with the Spirit, speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord: giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

ALLELUIA ↪ Paratum cor meum

Psalm 108

Alleluia, alleluia. My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready: I will sing, yea, I will praise thee, with the best member that I have. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

St Matthew 22.1-14

AT THAT TIME: Jesus spake to the chief priests and the Pharisees in parables, saying: 'The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, who made a marriage for his son. And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding, and they would not come. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying: "Tell them which are bidden: Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage." But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: and the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth, and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt up their city. Then saith he to his servants: "The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find bid to the marriage." So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good, and the wedding was furnished with guests. And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment. And he saith unto him: "Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment?" And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants: "Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

OFFERTORY MOTET William Byrd (1540-1623) ~ Psalm 137 (Offertory of Tr. XX)

Quomodo cantabimus canticum DOMINI in terra aliena? Si oblitus fuero tui, Jerusalem, oblivioni detur dextra mea. Adhaereat lingua mea faucibus meis, si non meminero tui. Si non proposuero Jerusalem in principio laetitiae meae. Memor esto DOMINE, filiorum Edom in die Jerusalem. ~ How shall we sing the LORD's song in a strange land? If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth. If I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy. Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem.

HYMN 273

And now, O Father, mindful of the love

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

GRANT, WE BESEECH THEE, O LORD, that these gifts, which we offer in the sight of thy majesty, may be profitable unto us for our salvation.

COMMUNION ~ Memento verbi tui

Psalm 119

Remember thy word unto thy servant, O LORD, wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust: the same is my comfort in my affliction.

POSTCOMMUNION

GRANT, O LORD, that the power of thy healing may mercifully cleanse us from all our perversities, and make us ever to cleave steadfastly unto thy commandments.

Meditations on the Blessed Virgin Mary during October, the month of the Rosary

The faithful at a very early date began to look to Mary and to imitate her in making their lives an act of worship of God and making their worship a commitment of their lives. As early as the fourth century, St Ambrose, speaking to the people, expressed the hope that each of them would have the spirit of Mary in order to glory God: 'May the heart of Mary be in each Christian to proclaim the greatness of the Lord; may her spirit be in everyone to exult in God.' But Mary is above all the example of that worship that consists in making one's life an offering to God. This is an ancient and ever new doctrine that each individual can hear again by heeding the Church's teaching, but also by heeding the very voice of the Virgin as she, anticipating in herself the wonderful petition of the Lord's Prayer – 'Your will be done' (St Matthew 6.10) – replied to God's messenger: 'I am the handmaid of the Lord. Let what you have said be done to me' (St Luke 1.38). And Mary's 'yes' is for all Christians a lesson and example of obedience to the will of the Father, which is the way and means of one's own sanctification. ✧ from the Apostolic Exhortation MARIALIS CULTUS of Paul VI
